

Hurstville Happenings

January

Hunter Education Class-online

Saturday January 16th from 8:00-Noon

Hurstville Interpretive Center

This is an Independent internet hunter education course designed for those who aren't able to attend a regular class. Those wishing to attend this one-day class must complete the online coursework and quizzes prior to Jan. 16th. Preregistration required by Jan.8th

Winter Fun Day

Saturday January 16th from 1:00-3:00PM

Hurstville Interpretive Center

Winter is here and its time to have some fun! Join a Naturalist for an afternoon of winter activities-snowshoeing, animal tracks, winter crafts, and more!

Flint Napping Demonstration

Sunday January 17th 1:00PM

Kicking Eagle, our local prehistoric weapons technician, will demonstrate techniques that have been used for thousands of years to produce tools for hunting & preparing game and weapons. This program will give you the opportunity to compare several examples of technology earlier cultures.

Dubuque Bald Eagle Watch

Saturday January 23rd

Eagle Viewing at Lock & Dam #11.

Programs & exhibits at the Grand River

Center-Port of Dubuque 9AM-4PM.

Snowshoes for rent here at the Hurstville Interpretive center!!

A great activity for those of all ages!

$5.00 rental fee per

Jackson County Conservation

Hurstville Interpretive Center

18670 63rd Street Maquoketa, IA

(563) 652-3783... jacksonccb@jacksonccb.com

www.jacksonccb.com

Hours:

Monday—Friday 9-4

Saturday—Sunday 12-4