Friends of Jackson County Conservation

“No goal is too high if we climb with care and confidence.”

What is it?

The Friends of Jackson County is a group that was formed to support and assist the Jackson County Conservation Board. The Friends organization has a seven member Board of Directors created to help guide the group.

Current projects include assisting the Jackson County Conservation Board with special projects, displays and exhibits.

Why should you join?

As a member of the Friends of Jackson County Conservation you will receive an invitation to the annual Friends meeting.

Other benefits may include:

- Early notice of some events
- Free rental of a pair of snowshoes
- Free use of other equipment
- Special discounts on products in the gift shop

Plus you get to put your two cents in on activities sponsored by the Friends group. Friends members will also receive the Jackson County Conservation newsletter.
