What is it?

Friends of Jackson County Conservation is a group of interested people which was formed to support, assist and promote the Jackson County Conservation Board.

The Friends support:

- Eagle Scout and Goldstar projects
- Smart Lunch Programs
- Interpretive signage and exhibits
- School education programs
- Overnight camps and summer day camps

Why should you join?

- Free family tours of Interpretive Center and grounds when scheduled in advance for a minimum of seven people.
- Meetings held four times a year to help plan programs, fundraisers, and projects. Your input encouraged.
- Drawings for free prizes.
- Field trip opportunities.
- Support education and conservation programs.
- 10% discount off items in gift shop.
- Free use of some equipment (snowshoes, fishing rods, butterfly nets)
- Volunteer opportunities
